THE DAILY SENTINGE. RUFUS KING & WM. H. WATSON PROPRIETORS.

Ender the Name and Firm of Rufus King & Co. MILWAUKEE Saturday Morning, April 4.

For Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, EDWARD V. WHITON

ELECTION, TUESDAY, APRIL 7.

Republican City Committee. As it is not at all probable that the Republi cans of our city will nominate any party candi-Cates for City or Ward officers, it is all imporone that our Republican Committee should take rompt and efficient measures to day to have a full supply of ballots provided for EDWARD V. WHITON, as Chief Justice, and challengers and duty must not be neglected. We hope that the officers of the Fremont Club, or Republican Committee of last fall, will act upon this suggestion without delay.

The Form of our Hallots.

The communication which we copy this mort ing, from the Janesville Gazette, urges very strong reasons why the names of persons woted for, as candidates for the Supreme, Circuit and County Court Bench, should be on a separate ballot from that containg the names of candidates for City, Ward and Town Offices. Happily, under our Statutes, the votes are ralid, whether cast singly, or together. But to prevent confusion and secure uniformity, we suggest that the Common Council, which meets to-night, instruct the Inspectors of Election for this city, to adopt one, or the other rule. Let us know, in season, whether we are to use single, or separate ballots for the Judicial and City Elections.

Our Turn Next. New Hampshire and Rhode Island have held their spring elections, and both those Revelitionary States have shown their fidelity to those principles of Right, Freedom and Justice, for which their founders fought, bled and died. On Tuesday next Wisconsin is to speak. How shall she speak? For Liberty and Right, or Slavery and Wrong? Every vote cast for M. M. Cothern, for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, is an endersement of the Fugitive Slave Act, of the Dred Scott decision, of the "Border Ruffian" outrages and iniquities in Kansas, and of Slavery propagandism everywhere. Every vote given to EDWARD V. WHITON, is a protest against all these wrongs against Humanity and a good blow struck for Equal Rights, even-handed Justice and Universal Freedom. READER! how will you vote?

our New Postmaster. A private despatch received resterday from Mr. SHAPPSTEIN, confirms the telegraphic report of Thursday night, that he had been appointed Post Master of Milwaukee. This is a very decided triumph for the Baretow wing of the Wisconsin Democracy. The selection is not the one that our business public would have preferred though highly satisfactory to Mr. Sharestein's political associates. We will not prejudge bi but wait to see how he fulfils the duties of his new office. For his own sake, as for that of the public, we can only express the hope that he will make as faithful and efficient a Post Master as his immediate predecessor, Jestan A. Noonan

The Circuit Judgeship. Gen. James H. Paine, who was carnesdy and unanimously recommended by the Republican Convention of Waukesha County, as a suitable cuddidate for Circuit Judge, declines the use of his name for that office.

for the transaction of township business generally are for the transaction of township business generally. A recurrence to the statute shows, that the legislature have intended to keep the election of our circuit and supreme judges distinct to consent to serve for the remainder of this to consent to serve for the remainder of this year. He promptly declined. We think that year. He promptly declined. We think that he was quite right. The Milwaukee Bar have treated him shabbily, and he evinced a decent treated mm snaodny, and me evineed a direct cleation of a justice of the supreme court on the sulf-respect in refusing to be a candidate for the last Monday, of September next preceding the unexpired balance of Judg. Hennestis term.

Striking Its Colore. The American, which was started botwoon one and two years age as a Know Nothing organ, and in that guiso did infinite mischief to the Republican cause and candidates; which lass for changed hands and edoes and declared for Fac-MONT and the Republican platform; and which, since the Presidential election, accurs to have been up "for Cowes and a market," has finally found a purchaser, and yesterday took leave of its late Republican friends and associ ates in words following; to witch a hands and ave-the Dred Scott case, we endorse the Fugitive Stave Law, and believe that the the power that created it, can reserved it—viz: THE PROFLE BY THEIR REPRESENTATIVES. But the United States as present, is not Wisconsin! We denounce the fraud and corruption of the Republican parity, in the north-eastern and north-western land frances, their defection towards, Judge. Howe in the Senatorship, their monal perpays feldening Judge Doolittle, their worship, in tacking inn to the Personal Liberty Bill, a rider to favor in the dividual who had, transgressed they laws of the land. In fact, we cannot recognize with not recognize the Republican party, of taday, as, the cognize the Republican party of to day, as, the body of men who were sent forth to battle with

Form of Bullotts. GENTLEMEN: —I perceive that you intimate an pinion that no separate ballot for judicial officers can be received at the approaching election, cers can be received action of the act passed by because the third section of the act passed by the legislature at its last session provides that each elector shall deliver to one of the inspectora of election "a single ballot or piece of paper." of election "a single ballot or piece of paper."

I suppose the expression above quoted must apply to each election at which the elector offers to yote. Now, the election, which is to take place for chief justice of the supreme court, is strictly a state election, and is wholly distinct from the town meetings which are holden on the same day for the choice of township officers and for the transaction of township business generally. A sourcende to the statute shows, that

It appears then, that we are to hold a state; a election for the choice of a chief justice of the supreme court, a county election for the choice of a county judge; and a town meeting for the choice of township or city efficers. It is to be launchted that the legislature did not previou in what manner the various officers who are to be elected, should be voted for, but in the absence any provision. I presume there should be a separate ballot cast by each elector, at each election. This has been done heretofore, atthough the reit ind stantes provide that the names of all the percons voted for by any elector at any general or special election shall be on one ballot." (Rev. FOR SALE. A Farm That is a Farm.

THES FARTH is situated in the handsomest por-ton of our fair Sinte, within a short distance of a failroad depot, bordering on a small lake of the purest water, with bold and beautiful shorts, some mile and a half in length and three-fourths of a mile in width. The owner, on account of ill health, is obliged to give up the farming business, and will therefore give any man who has the means, a chance to purchase a princely farm on easy and reasonable terms and at a great bargain. fald farm contains 480 acres, whereof about 200 are cultivated, 60 acres meadows and the balance flue heavy oak timber. To acres of wheat were raised on the farm tast year and yielded 20 bushels nor acre, which is all that a necessary to say in reference to the quality of the soil and as regards buildings—dwellings, barns, sheep and cat-de sheds, &c. &c., they are all that can be desired on such a farm, the orchard is very large and contains almost every description of fruit, and there are 7 miles of fences on suid farm.

This is undoubtedly the best chance offered in the State to procure a spleadid farm. For further particulars o blich, apply to the solo agent, marif W. LAYDLAW

I counted, however, hour by hour: thirteen weeks, ninery one days, two thousand one hundred and eighty four hours, or one hundred and thirty-one thousand and forty minutes, to the vacadion. What had I done to deserve all this? I pondered. What good was to come of it? Would it not be better to die? And now I fell askep, and dreamed the good was to come of it? Woull it not be better to die? And now I fell asleep, and dreamed the sweetest of dreams, about my sizeer Harriet and the pony; of bay making in the fields at bone, and syllabub afterwards; of how above all, I was never—never to I ave home again; of my father bringing me a watch upon my birthday and say ing, with an affectionate smile— "A quart : to seven, young gents, a quarter to

> It was after I had lost my seven thousand pounds in the ray and bone business, and was existing upon five pounds per annum, paid quarterly, that I revisited, after ten years absence, the University of Oxford. I was on foot and weary at the end of this my second days' journey from London, and I sat down upon the right of Bagiry London, and I sat down upon the right of Baginy London, and I sat down upon the right of Bagicy Wood, that looks down upon the town of towns There was a gate close by, over which I remember to have leaped my house upon my last visit to this place. Three of my most intimate college friends were then with me—Travers of Trinity, Stuart, of Erazeness, and Gory Gumps, with what we called Grindwell of Magdalen, but why would so I had forgetten. Our conversation on that very same day had been about our futures when we should have to leave this nacient place.

> when we should have to leave this ancient place, whose high and noble associations had had less whose high and noble associations had had less effect upon us, perhaps than its general influences. We know then that we should one day regret that time of our hot youth when we walked in the ways of our heart and in the sight of our eyes, petting sorrow far away from us—when thends were many and foes were none, and all the months were May; but I, for my part, had nover gressed how bitterly. I could never have looked forward—or I should as a philanchropist, have also myself—to this miserable hour ten have slain myself—to this miserable hour, ten years away, when the beautiful river yonder, glittering in the sun, upon which I had so often passed the sunmer moons, should be as the waters of birterness that came in over my soil. I could see the green Christchurch meadows, and the z in dark stream of Cherwell, and that

Presentation at the Franch Court.

Parts, March 5, 1857.

I fancy your readers would like to see a little of that thing called kingerait and royalty. I have to day, through the kindness of our Ambassador, been presented at the Franch Court, now resident at the Tultories. Donaling the court dress, which is requisite, consisting of a bine dress coat, profusely decorated with gill lace and innumerable brass buttons; the pants with a strip of gilt lace on each side; a white vest; a walte neak cloth; a chapoau, like those which will rise up into our throats when we are saying good bye to those we love, would, I thought, have suffected me. Reflect, O I happy ones, unseparated at home, what a thing it is to be parted from parent, from sister, from all not by death—for before bin, perforce, the whole human race must how submissive—but by poverty, which carries off by a sort of premature death so many into exile every year—a new strange, lacd awaking those who go, and on old land that has become arrange, through the exiles' absence, a wait fing these who stay.

Be not extentionate, O cabonan! upon that day; that extra sixpence which you have pillaged from the old man's scanty purse, you will be cleat if it were possible, to restore a hundredlaged from the old man's scanty purse, you will be glad, if it were possible, to restore a hundred-fold—to atone for, with all you have. Gently, official, gently, as it is only a question of a minute. Let the girl hang round her bruther's neck a little longer, and thrust him not aside; it will be better for you very surely. Not that the old man, nor his child, nor l, have a thought now for injustice, or for insult; our eyes are blinded, our poor hearts are crushed. Never so near as when we part, is a true saying. "Good bye," "Gold be with you," and once more, "Good bye." "God be with you," and once more, "Good bye." I am hapited from the dock of the vessel by a weeping crowd, and can stand only at the edge of the quay, no never to those four, who are waving their pocket-hankerchicls, ever again. It is a cold, misty morning, and the small rain is falling steadily; but I see them plainly yet. The huge packet costs off; the first half-turn of those shormon paddles, which must coaselessly revolve for so many thousand miles, is made; the people on the shore begin a sort of choking sheer, and those on board reply to it a little more surrolly. The ship forges aboad; the band strikes up a melody that is dear to those four and me, and which makes our tears flow freely. I see their waving hankerchiefs once more—on I think I see them—and then over the sad waters into the misty spray, the vessel speeds, and the fig closes misty epray, the vessel speeds, and the fig closes slowly over it. I stand upon the wet dock, musing mournfully alone, and Left Benind! INNOVATION IN BONNEYS .- Some of the Parisi balles have of late indulged to a considerable re-better in round hats—the most adventurous inno-vation which has been attempted for years; and their example has been followed by a few w'o order their costumes direct from the capital of that capricious sovereign—Fashion. They are that caprictous sovereign—rashion. They are worn as yet only in the cartiage, of at the operations having been sunned in the open street. But like birds that herald the approach of summer, they indicate a wavering and prospective mutation in taste, and if they advance in favor, may be "the rage" by October.—N. Y. Express, Manh 98.

but principally, and always three at a time, upon my body, they made of me an extempore battering rim, stoke softly out into the passage and knocked over the opposition Cave with that as tounding weapon; they—but it is chough to say that they behaved as only the real, good old, constitutional, pattern, Parliament deluded British schoolboy when he gets a follow viring to form the passage from the passage from the constitutional, pattern, Parliament deluded British schoolboy when he gets a follow viring to form the passage from the rest, and with answered the same somewhat ballowish, and withal answered the purpose of a british schoolboy when he gets a follow in the constitutional, and withal answered the purpose of a british schoolboy when he gets a follow in the complicated life-preserver. Many Voters." er to the 1st Question-There was no order and to C. A. Buttles nor any other person for filling Lot 8, Dicok 60 in the 4th Ward. There was an order issued to O. A. Buttles for $912,23 for a bank of gravel on said lot, and the gravel so bought was used on West Water street, Spring street, Becond street and other streets in I advanced the money out of my own pocket for the gravel, as other parties stood ready to take the gravel and pay the money down. I hok the order for the money so advanced to Buttler, for that amount. Answer to 2d Question—There was $1,185,73 paid out of the Ward fund to Dannals for draining and repairing streets, alleys and side-walks, which amount was specially natessed on properly fronting on said side walks, alleys and streets, and credited to the Ward fund by the City emptroller, as by reference to the City Treasurer's books ill appear. The balance paid to Dannals was for grading on Third, Sycamore and Fourth streets, around the public square every item of which will appear by reference to the pooks of the Oity Compireller.

The Young America will grind as much corn in the cold whele corn, cats, barley, and all other grains for stock as any mill of the same size and with much less draft. What we claim is great strength, durability and simplectly, being so simple that a child can learn to grind with safety.

What we claim a great strength, durability and simiphelity being so simple that a child can learn to grind with safety.

In the fact we claim the small expense to renew the grinding parts of the mill, and the ease with which the grinding parts of the mill, and a cost-of not over three dollars, which makes it superior and more economical than any other mill. The grinding parts of the above mill arc made of the hurdent of cust iron, a hard in fact it is cast steel can be tempered. Each sat will grind from 5,000 to A0,000 bushels of grain, with proper usage. Besidesitho set of grindors on the mill, it extre set will be on with each mill; sold, making it equals to two common mills. When found necessary to change the grindors, almostady one can dol in twenty minutes.
